

PSA LEGAL SEMINAR

BRISTOL

23.10.19

GOT A PROBLEM WITH YOUR PRINCIPAL?

It is with pleasure that we are able to confirm we will be holding a PSA Legal Seminar in Bristol on 23rd October.

Retirement, Ill health, reduction in areas, house accounts, foreign principals, contracts, compensation, current case law, interpretation of the 1993 Commercial Agents Directive etc. - these and other items relating to the issues that concern you will be discussed.

The format is as follows:

2.00pm - 2.45pm Introduction by PSA Chair.

- Where the PSA is now and what we can currently offer our members
- New PSA Compensation Spreadsheet Calculator with explanation
- What the PSA is looking to achieve in the future

2.45pm to 4.00pm Presentation by Julie Brodie of Thompsons Solicitors

- Items relating to Agency Disputes and the current interpretation of the 1993 Commercial Agents Directive

4.00pm to 5.00pm Questions & Answers

* PLACES ARE RESTRICTED TO 50 PER EVENT SO WE WOULD RECOMMEND YOU REQUEST A PLACE ASAP.

Please send an email to PSA@uniteunion.org and state you wish to attend the Bristol Seminar.

Bristol Seminar | Wednesday 23rd October 2019 | 2.00pm start.

📍 Room 203, Unite the Union,
Tony Benn House,
Victoria Street,
Bristol BS1 6AY

We look forward to seeing you.

JULIE BRODIE
Employment Rights Lawyer
Thompsons Solicitors
Bristol

STANDING UP FOR YOU

Julie is a member of Thompsons' employment rights team, based at Thompson's Bristol Office.

She provides employment advice and representation on matters including unfair dismissal, disability, race and sex discrimination, Transfers of Undertakings Regulations (TUPE), protective awards, redundancy and wages claims as well as county court claims.

Julie is a member of the Industrial Law Society.

Liaising with Kate Fox, Julie is responsible for PSA cases in the South West of England and Southern Wales.