STANDING UP FOR YOU

Kate qualified as a solicitor in 1996 when she joined niche trade union practice Douglas Mann & Co where she worked as a litigator until 1999.

She completed a postgraduate Diploma in UK, European and US Law of Copyright and Related Rights at King's College, London in 2003 and joined Thompsons civil litigation department in London in 2004.

Kate is responsible for developing copyright policy for union clients including drafting submissions for "IPO Review of Copyright", "Gowers Review of Intellectual Property", "Hargreaves Review of Intellectual Property" and "IPO Consultation on introducing a small claims track in the Patents County Court".

Now she is the lead solicitor with overall responsibility for all the PSA cases in England & Wales.
